Potential Drawbacks for CHO Directory

Wikidata:

- Administrative anxiety – loss of “control” over information
- Potential vandalism – anyone can update the information

Grant funded update:

- Timeliness – data will be out of date shortly after being published

Potential Benefits for CHO Directory

Wikidata:

- Flexible structure – able to represent many relationships in repeatable fields; records easily enhanced with additional data
- Decentralized updates – simple edits can be done manually by anyone; no need for an institutional or individual “owner”
- Open license – Facts represented in Wikidata are public domain
- Sourced information – reference links can (and should!) be included for each statement, for verification and future updates
- Broad access – no need to set up specialized software

Grant funded update:

- Refreshed data – ability to generate needed data swiftly in an emergency
