LYRASIS

Congratulations to the 2019 Catalyst Fund Award Recipients

The Catalyst Fund was created to directly fund projects by member institutions that are designed to benefit the entire community of archives, libraries and museums. These projects were carefully reviewed and chosen based on their potential for scalability and maximum impact on all collections-holding institutions. Only LYRASIS members are eligible to apply for the Catalyst Fund.

catalystfund
investing in our members

KING COUNTY LIBRARY SYSTEM

Conversational Artificial Intelligence: Bringing the Library to Your Living Room
$34,600

COLUMBUS METROPOLITAN LIBRARY

My Upload: Engaging Library Users in Digital Collections
$25,200

FIU | FLORIDA INTERNATIONAL UNIVERSITY

AI for Archives: Using Facial Recognition to Enhance Metadata
$25,000

Atlanta University Center Robert W. Woodruff Library

Using Linked Open Data for Georgia's Natural, Cultural and Historic Organizations' Disaster Response
$16,190

University of Michigan

Using Linked Open Data for Open Data Toolkit Based on Diversity, Equity, Inclusion and Access Principles
$25,380

Want to learn more about ALL the benefits of LYRASIS membership? Please email membership@lyrasis.org

For more information, please visit www.lyrasis.org

catalyst fund

LYRASIS